We offer programmes which meet the needs of children between the age of two years old and six years old. The programmes are:

International Stream (Trilingual):

In the Trilingual Stream, English, Cantonese and Putonghua are used as the medium of instruction. The Chinese curriculum follows the Education Bureau's standard curriculum, whilst the English curriculum is taught through games, songs and activities which give children ample opportunities to develop a range of literacy skills. These activities place strong emphasis on fostering their interest in reading and developing their listening skills and oral expression. Children will also develop the fundamental abilities required for emergent writing. All English teachers are qualified, native speakers. Through learning in small groups, our experienced Putonghua speaking teachers (who have obtained a Grade B in Level 2 or above in the National Putonghua Proficiency Test) will help strengthen the children's Putonghua and develop their language potential in order to achieve the best learning effect.

International Stream (Bilingual):

The Bilingual Stream (English & Putonghua) is conducted in English and Putonghua. The curriculum, in general, is designed for children whose mother tongue is either Putonghua or English. The Chinese curriculum follows the Education Bureau's standard curriculum, whilst the English curriculum is taught through games, songs and activities which give children ample opportunities to develop a range of literacy skills. These activities place strong emphasis on fostering their interest in reading and developing their listening skills and oral expression. Children will also develop the fundamental abilities required for emergent writing. All English teachers are qualified, native speakers.
